

Please don't take KLOVE from the Oklahoma City listening area. This radio station has such a positive impact on me personally, and the whole area. Most of my friends listen to this station also. It's so encouraging to have a Christian station to listen to and not be afraid of what I hear coming from the mouths of the DJ's. I believe God has done a mighty work through this station, and he's not through yet.